About the Channels

dShift99 is the flagship channel and delivers to the public ... talk shows, entertainment, documentaries, and much more. We endeavor to showcase topics discussed in the mainstream and television programming that expand one's perception. d'Shift99 will act as a catalyst to determine what our public wants more of. Whether it be fashion, short films, nature shows, art, the latest news topics, or something else, we will put it to the test right here on d'Shift99.

Is there an order for all things?
Is there a pattern of numbers existing within all humans?
Could these patterns reside in dreams, numerology, tarot, and astrology?

Shift to the Real examines everything mystical and provides information that one may use to challenge oneself and thus discover the best part of who they are and what one could become.

Shifting Religious Concepts is spiritually based and undergoes deep dives into biblical scripture and other publications to unpack the symbolism and secrets hidden within taught theology.

Eye On d'Sports is dedicated to showcasing upcoming athletes and their performance in their choice of sports. From football to soccer and all sports in between, you name it. Watch athletes from Little League games and other sports arenas grow into being the best at their game. Whether male or female, "Eye On d'Sports" will showcase the game and watch for the early stages of progression as an athlete is groomed to be the best.

d'Spotlight is the channel to watch for upcoming artists. This channel will showcase those singers, dancers, musicians, poets, and bands who may not have made it to America's Got Talent or any other television talent-seeking programs. Still, the artists are in d'Spotlight on this channel because millions can view their talent and vote on the best talent, and who can say where that may lead? d'Spotlight will unveil the hottest talent worldwide. In the past, you could watch the early stages of an artist's talent on shows like American Band Stand and Soul Train, but now, new and upcoming artists have d'Spotlight.

Because We Care (BWC) is a division of the Family Unification Network (F.U.N.) and delivers insightful training programming that offers community healing, resources to enable justice-impacted individuals and their families to make more informed decisions, and entertainment that causes the heart to laugh and the mind to be joyful. BWC broadcast sport shows that illustrate connectivity and religious/spiritual content that grows the mind and spirit and allows the body to be quickened. Our broadcast will center on those impacted by the justice system, whether they are a family member of the incarcerated or close friend of the individual who is or has been incarcerated. The BWC Channel was established to enlarge the F.U.N. footprint and ensure that F.U.N. may continue providing the resources necessary to support the justice-impacted communities and their families.
